" Surfin' Santa"
A Holiday Musical At Old Hammondtown

Proud fathers lined up and down the crowded aisles at the Old Hammondtown Auditorium in Mattapoisett peering through their camcorders; sleepy younger brothers and sisters stretched their necks to get a glimpse of their siblings, mothers tried to get their children's attention by standing up and waving and grandparents looked on proudly during the Holiday Program on Monday Night.

Upon entering the school, children passed out personalized brightly colored programs they colored in with their names on them. On the cover Santa is riding a wave, wearing Bermuda shorts and his hat on. Families squeezed together in the packed auditorium in anticipation of their child's moment in the spotlight. The program began with the Old Hammondtown Band playing "Russian Sleigh Ride," and an "Instant Christmas Concert." Then the Jazz band warmed things up with "Southern Exposure" and "Centerpiece." Parents squealed with delight to watch their children up on stage, playing their hearts out. Meanwhile Ms. Paula Roy and the rest of the students were running around doing last minute preparations for the one-act musical play. Students lined up on stage, wearing shorts, brightly colored flowered shirts, Santa hats, leis, and sunglasses. Many curious people eyed the Surf boards, flip-flops and scuba gear props with curiosity (After all, it is a Christmas Musical!)

Ms. Paula Roy opened the act and explained a few of the students were unable to attend because of sickness. Luckily, she had many talented students who were able to fill in at the last minute. She said of all the schools she has worked in, she has received the most cooperation from the parents, teachers and students at Old Hammondtown. Santa Claus, (Tiffany Hopkinson who had about one week to practice) her elves and the chorus began the show with "If I Can Only Make It Through The Winter." The chorus sang and danced for the enjoyment of all. The months of practice definitely paid off in this spectacular performance. In this song, Santa complains about the cold-winter weather, bundling up from head-to-toe, his arthritis, and wishes for "warmer weather." Santa, Mrs. Claus, elves and the chorus sing how he needs to get away.

"I want to get away to a place in the sun, I can't handle another Christmas Eve in the the sleigh...I want to escape to someplace warm," he sang. Even the assurances from his elves to get him a heater don't help. Meanwhile Ms. Grimley (Rebecca Mui) and Wally (John Zajac) plan to take over the North Pole because Santa's supposedly cutting into the business profits of their toy factory. They trick him by luring him on a game show. Santa has the chance to win a vacation on a game show hosted by Vanna White (or the closest thing to her-Kristina Schmid). When she's not smiling from ear to ear at the audience, she's brushing her blonde hair or blow drying it while looking in the mirror. During the game show Santa is asked three questions he has no difficulty answering. Because he is Santa he knows the color of Rudolph's nose, that his belly is compared to jelly, and that the partridge is in a pear tree. Four cheerleaders (Kelli Jones, Kara Peters, Lauren Wahl and Meghan DeWalt) join the chorus in "Santa You're A Winner." Santa decides he needs a vacation, even if he has to miss Christmas. He packs his bags for sandy beaches, and fun-filled days in the sun.

In the Bahamas he befriends a Jamaican by the name of Marvin (Renee Change) who teaches him how to surf, snorkel and to do the Limbo (Hey Man). The chorus, Marvin, Mrs. Claus (Kristen Martin), Islanders and Tourists break out into "A Day At The Beach," cheering for Santa, doing the Limbo. He transforms to a "Jamaican Santa Man"-until his elves tell him the Grimly Factory has taken over the North Pole. His vacation of a lifetime is postponed for the time being. Luckily, he arrives in time to save the North Pole and teach everyone the spirit of giving. Ms. Grimly agrees to give back the North Pole and to give away some surplus toys to the less fortunate boys and girls (there is a tax deduction after all she adds). Santa, Mrs. Claus, Ellen (Sara Cucinotta), the Elves and the chorus sing "Share A Little Christmas"-which teaches to "share a little Christmas every day of the year." Santa agrees to finish his vacation next month during a much less busy season and he even adds on another elf-Marvin.

public hearing being held first. The first hearing was continued because of many unanswered questions about the procedure.

"At the last meeting we discussed coming up with a procedure (ensuring) that excavating wouldn't take place until permission was given. We've come up with a permit for road excavation," said Chairman Lambalot. Ms. Adams said she put together necessary information in the form of a permit including the road to be excavated, a description of the project, a commencement date, a completion date, and provisions that have been made to ensure public safety and the least inconvenience to the public. The permit also requires the water/sewer department, COM/Electric, COM/Gas, New England Telephone and Continental Cablevision to be notified if applicable.

"This excavation has to be approved by the Highway Surveyor, he approves the work and sends a copy of the form to the Selectmen," explained Chairman Lambalot. This permit will be required for routine work but not for a water or gas leak. "We're trying to be more cautious, make the town officials aware that work is being done and accomplished properly," said Chairman Lambalot. The permits will be available at the Town Hall and from the Highway Surveyor.

Selectmen unanimously approved the conduit location, providing the permit process will be used from now on. "No work will be performed until a hearing and permits are approved," Chairman Lambalot noted.

Selectman DeCosta said the Council On Aging is considering renting space from the Knights Of Columbus for one year. They have been looking for a new meeting place for some time. Selectmen said they should include this item on the Special Town Meeting warrant to approve the rent money (about $100 per week). "This is just what we've been looking for," said Chairman Lambalot. They will meet with members from the council to discuss the matter further.

At 7:45 Selectmen met with Dennis Luttrell from the Buzzards Bay Action Committee to discuss forming a "Pollution Control Task Force" in Mattapoisett. He said Bourne has formed such a group. "They study pollution problems and give information to Selectmen and identify problems," said Mr. Luttrell. He said the group has proved to benefit the town, especially when it comes to grant writing. "This is really helpful, it brings different points to the table and understanding," he added. Selectmen voted to take the matter under advisement.

Under incoming correspondence, Selectmen received a letter from Pat Bernard who commended the firefighters who recently checked her house fire Chief Moran advised that following a recent meeting with representatives involved with Enhanced 9-1-1 it appears that the town will now go on line on February 21, 1996. Training sessions will begin on January 25 to the 31st. Chief Moran also submitted additional correspondence relating to emergency "back-up" service once the town is on-line with Enhanced 9-1-1. Fairhaven Selectmen voted to authorize Fairhaven Police to act as Mattapoisett's backup.

Safety Officer Magee also submitted a letter relative to the installation of additional public pay phones along Route 6 west of Tedeschi's Officer Magee requested that at least one or two phones be installed along Route 6 between Main Street and the Fairhaven line. "This would allow pedestrians and motorists much quicker access to the 911 system to report a crime, medical emergency or fire," he wrote in the letter. There being no further business before the Board to discuss, the meeting adjourned at 8:00 pm.

Rochester Selectmen's Meeting

December 18, 1995

A regular meeting of the Rochester Board of Selectmen was called to order on Monday, December 18, 1995 at 7:00 pm by Selectman David L. Hughes. Also present were Selectman Lorraine Roy Hawkes and Administrative Secretary Shirley A. Ferriera. Chairman Michael Murphy was absent.

Some changes were made to the minutes of last week's meeting. Correspondence for the week included a request, which the board granted, from Chief Walter Denham to carry over five vacation days into 1996. The Board of Health asked for the Selectmen's presence at their next meeting to discuss the septic system repair program. The Town of Wareham also sent a request for a joint perambulation of the Wareham-Rochester boundary.

Selectman Hughes recognized the winners of the decorating contest. Liz Hathaway of 140 Snipatuit Road, Susan McCombe of 366 Snipatuit

The board met with Robert Hiller at 7:15 pm to discuss the necessity of acquiring an earth removal permit. Mr. Hiller is planning a ground level excavation at his cranberry bogs. Selectman Hughes said that a permit would be necessary, but the plans would not have to be done by an engineer.

At 7:45 pm, the Selectmen met with Walter Dixon about hunting on Dexter Lane. A piece of land was recently posted as no-hunting property. "It was recommended by the police chief," Selectman Hughes said. He also pointed out that because there must be 500 feet of clearance from any property, there are only 380 feet of legal hunting ground on the posted area. There were a lot of hunters trying to claim the same territory he said. There are nearby businesses and houses with children. "I just don't want to see discharging of firearms on that property," Selectman Hughes said. "We have a liability."

"It's just to prevent anything from happening," said Selectman Hawkes. Mr. Dixon thought that the new signs meant that nobody could carry firearms on that property. This would prevent access to other nearby hunting grounds. Selectman Hughes said that it would be all right to walk across it, just as long as no shots are fired.

Last week's Christmas Tree Lighting had a record turnout. With no other matters for discussion, the board wished everyone a happy holiday and adjourned at 7:55 pm.

Acushnet Selectmen's Meeting

December 18, 1995

By Kenneth J. Souza

A regular meeting of the Acushnet Board of Selectmen was called to order at 5:30 pm on Monday, December 18 by Chairman Peter W. Koczera. Also present were Selectman Everett L. Hardy, Selectman Robert J. St. Jean and Executive Secretary Elaine G. Miranda.

After approving the minutes of the December 4 and December 11 meetings, and related Executive Session minutes, the board reviewed incoming correspondence for the week, beginning with four proposals/bids received last week to Morency Floors — $417.00; Mr. Carpet — $540.00; Jeff Ollivierre's Carpets & Vinyl — $715.50; TileCraft — $1075.00. The board unanimously voted to award the job to the lowest bidder — Morency Floors — for a total of $417.00.

Building Commissioner James Buckles next submitted a memo to the board advising them of his holiday schedule. Mr. Buckles stated he would be taking a half day vacation on December 22, and also on December 29. He will also be on vacation for December 26, 27, 28 and January 2. The board moved to file the memo.

Fire Chief Paul R. Cote next submitted a memo to the board suggesting that after inspecting the Town Hall facility there was no smoke detector in the new office space. Chief Cote also advised that smoke detectors should be installed in the three new offices being constructed in the Town Hall basement, as well as the installation of emergency lighting in that area. Chairman Koczera moved to refer this matter to the Town Hall Maintenance Supervisor for recommended action.

Ms. Miranda next noted the bids which were opened on Friday, December 15 at 11:00 am to purchase new air bags for the Fire Department. Three bids were received and noted as follows:

American Fire Equipment Company, Inc. (Roslindale, MA) — $5,269.00; Lyons Fire Equipment (Rockland, MA) — $5,575.00; and Firematic Supply Co. Inc. (Yaphank, NY) — $6,087.00. No action had been taken on the bids pending the final recommendation of Fire Chief Paul Cote. An allocation of $7,000 was appropriated at the June 14, 1995 Annual Town Meeting for this purpose.

Lastly, the board received a notice from the Building Commissioner of a request he received for a "Change of Use Permit" for 32 Bardsley Street to change a residential property into a beauty salon. Chairman Koczera noted that such requests should go before the Board of Appeals, and he asked that this matter be forwarded to them.

At 5:45 pm the board presented special Certificates of Appreciation from the Town of Acushnet to James Simmons, Wally Parker, and Roland Pepin for their volunteer work and selfless contributions to area environmental issues. Both Mr. Simmons and Mr. Parker were cited for their work with Hands Across The River and for specifically pitching in to clean up the river between the Hammond Street Bridge and Main Street Bridge.

"I'm very pleased and I think it's quite appropriate that (Acushnet) recognize our efforts (along the Acushnet River)," said Mr. Simmons. "I know how much heart and hard work was put into this (effort)."

Likewise, Mr. Pepin was recognized for his tenacious efforts in removing contaminated material from the Acushnet River, and his ongoing work in cleaning up the New Bedford Harbor. "We want to recognize (Mr. Pepin) for his dedicated efforts on behalf of the Town of Acushnet," Chairman Koczera said, "and for all the hours he puts in."

Mr. Pepin said he didn't expect to receive the commendation, but he appreciated the board's recognition of his work.

Under Old Business, Chairman Koczera noted the board had conducted a "walk-through" inspection of 58 acres of property located on Perry Hill Road this past weekend. Mr. Koczera noted that the town is seriously considering making an offer on the parcel to retain the property as Open Space. The property is one of three parcels currently owned by the estate of Bueller Lemos, and was originally assessed at $265,000, but has since been on the market at $149,000.

Koczera said. "We're looking at the possibility of (putting in) well fields at the bottom ... it might be a good future site to locate the town's water supply. But we still have to discuss this with the Conservation Commission."

Chairman Koczera also noted that the board has had ongoing discussions with the U.S. Marshall's Office regarding property at 60 Middle Road which was seized several years ago in a drug-related bust. "We're in the final stages of negotiations and we feel confident we're going to obtain the property for about $70,000," Mr. Koczera said. "It's a seven-acre house lot near the water which would be useful for recreational purposes."

At 6:05 pm the board opened a hearing in response to alleged liquor violations incurred by Rugby's Food and Drink and The Highlander, both of Acushnet. Present for the proceedings were Town Counsel Everett J. Marder; Police Chief Michael Poitras; Linda Plourde, Owner and General Manager of The Highlander; Howard Plourde, Owner and General Manager of Rugby's Food and Drink; and Attorney Walter Smith, representing both establishments.

Chief Poitras began by explaining there was a young woman present who had approached him earlier this year about doing something as a project for her Criminal Justice course at UMass Dartmouth. The young woman — who was referred to only as "Jane Doe" during the proceedings to protect her identity — was asked by Chief Poitras if she'd be interested in going to some of the liquor establishments in Acushnet and reporting on their serving practices with relation to minors.

"Jane Doe" informed Chief Poitras that she had some family members and friends who were under the age of 21 who could assist her in this task. She agreed to the proposal and visited several town establishments during late September and early October. Chief Poitras read excerpts from two of her written reports, indicating that she and her underaged cousin had been served liquor at both Rugby's Food and Drink and The Highlander.

"My underage cousin and I visited Rugby's Bar on Monday, September 25, 1995 at approximately 8:00 pm," Chief Poitras read. "The young, female bartender did not ask either of us for a form of identification, nor did she ask anyone who entered after us."

Chief Poitras also read from the second written report: "On Friday, October 6, me, my fiancé (under 21 at the time), my cousin (also under 21), and her male companion proceeded to The Highlander. When it was time to go for drinks ... my cousin ordered two beers — one for her and one for her friend. The female bartender, the owner of the place, asked my cousin for an I.D. However, my cousin lied and told her that she had forgotten it in the car, but that she would get it if the bartender wanted to see it. But the bartender remembered us from Rugby's (because she was there the last time

Attorney Smith protested the reading of the reports into the record without identifying the young woman by name. He also felt that both establishments should have been notified earlier of the outcome of this so-called "sting operation."

defendants) prior to the scheduled hearing," Attorney Smith said. "We weren't given (the reports) ... and I think they contain some conclusive statements which were made by someone who is not trained in law enforcement."

Chairman Koczera asked that the young woman's name be withheld so that it did not appear in the newspapers. He felt that this was a volunteer effort on her part, and she should not be forced into public attention as a result. Town Counsel Marder noted that regardless of "Jane Doe's" expertise or lack thereof, the reports contained eyewitness testimony of an establishment serving alcohol to someone without checking for identification.

"We have the (testimony) of a private citizen who, under the Police Chief's instructions, was asked to report back to them," Attorney Marder said. "The only issue at hand is an alleged violation of (Massachusetts General Laws) Chapter 138 — the serving of alcohol to a minor."

SHORT OR LONG-TERM LOAN?

In the old days, when you financed your home with a fixed rate mortgage, it was a long- term loan - - period - - usually around 20 or 30 years. However in today's super market selection of mortgages, even the fixed rate variety has a choice. A major fork in the road now involves the term (length of loan) of fixed rate mortgages. Do you choose a long term, fixed-rate loan or a short-term, early ownership variety that usually runs in the15-year range?

The principle of leverage separates the two borrowing philosophies. If you want to borrow as much as possible for as long as possible, for the lowest monthly payments, you want the leverage and should select a 30-year loan. On the other hand, shorter term, fixed rate mortgages can achieve significant savings in total interest payouts and faster equity buildup.

Those who can afford the slightly higher monthly payments would be wise to consider the shorter term program and its money-saving, earlier retirement of the debt.

Call BRUCE today with any of your Real Estate questions or needs, we're here to help!! 758-6738.

Despite the reports, however, Attorney Smith questioned both Mr. Plourde, Ms. Plourde, and Kim Senna, a bartender at Rugby's, as to their serving practices and about the nights in question.

Linda Plourde, who has been the Owner and General Manager of The Highlander for the past eleven years, has never been cited for an Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission (ABCC) violation; and maintains that she never serves anyone without checking for an I.D. "If they told me they had an I.D. in the car, they'd be going out to get it," she said.

Ms. Plourde also said she didn't recognize "Jane Doe," and admitted she was working on the night "Ms. Doe" allegedly witnessed her cousin and fiancé being served drinks.

Likewise, Kim Senna, who was tending bar at Rugby's on the night when "Jane Doe" alleged her cousin had been served, said she didn't recognize her and didn't recall any such incident. "Jane Doe" also said she hadn't seen Ms. Senna before, and described the bartender on duty as an older woman with shoulder-length brown hair.

After hearing further testimony and a closing statement from Attorney Smith, the board debated whether or not they wanted to make a decision that evening. Chairman Koczera said he would like to take the matter under advisement and render a decision at their next meeting. But as the next scheduled meeting isn't until January 8 — nearly four weeks away — Attorney Marder suggested they make a decision either that evening or within the week.

With that, Selectman St. Jean noted that the town had an established policy with regard to liquor law violations, and he would like to continue with what precedent had been set. "The policy clearly outlines what the penalty should be for any such violations," Selectman St. Jean said.

Chairman Koczera read from Section 94-2 of the Town By-Laws relating to liquor violations as follows: "First offense for serving alcohol to a minor will result in a written warning or up to a three-day license suspension."

Selectman Hardy noted that since the board has been historically lenient on first offenders in the past — and such practice has resulted in few repeat offenders — he would recommend the same in this case. He also suggested making a point of offering the full penalty should a second offense be brought before them as part of their motion.

The board thereby unanimously agreed to issue written warnings to both Rugby's Food and Drink and The Highlander for serving liquor to minors, and stressed that a full penalty in the form of a fourteen-day license suspension be rendered should a second offense occur.

The board's next scheduled meeting is slated for Monday, January 8 at 6:00 pm, to be immediately followed by a Special Town Meeting at 7:00 pm at the Acushnet Elementary School on Mill Road.

A NOTE OF THANKS

In sincere appreciation to all who've called from Acushnet, Dartmouth, Fairhaven, Marion, Mattapoisett, New Bedford, Rochester, and Wareham.

THANK YOU

For the opportunity to provide estimates and service to you, your homes and your property. This season we've received 114 cold calls, 16 March 1995 thru 8 December 1995 and serviced 80 customers. Several customers only once, i.e. installing a roof, removing an air conditioner, digging a ditch or a dump run. Many customers were provided with a variety of services i.e. weekly or bi-weekly mowings, yard clean-ups, lot clearing, brush removal, painting, window removal or installation and weeding. Our goal for our first year in business was to service 25 customers' yards. But through customers' requests a variety of services was found to be in high demand. To all our present customers we say thank you for teaching us a valuable lesson in business economics.

sincere interest in what they are learning. Let them know that school should be their number one priority even during this hectic month of December. In doing these things, along with involving your children in planning for the holidays, parents may discover that their family celebrations at home are more enjoyable and meaningful.

Extra Help

All fifth graders have an opportunity to prepare for tests and receive help during school time at daily study groups. These tutorial/review enrichment programs are conducted by Mrs. Mamroe, the fifth grade special needs aide. The sessions last from 1:00 pm-1:30 pm during lunch recess. Each Monday, a notice is posted outside the door of Room 26 which lists the groups planned for that week. Whenever a test is scheduled in advance, a study group is held one or two days before the test.

Spelling groups have spelling "bees," taken quizzes or practiced choral spelling. Social Studies groups have made flashcards from class notes. Anyone who come to all the 50 Nifty study sessions will end up with a complete set of 50 flashcards of states, capitals and abbreviations. This will be a big help in studying for the end of the year 50 Nifty contest! Other sessions have been used to research reports in the library, edit reports, create study guidelines, or for extra help in problem areas. This help is available to any fifth graders who want to participate.

Schools month for each child and paying for the tuning of the piano. Thank you for your continued support of the music programs. During December, besides the first sounds of the season, they children have done songs about the rain, wind and weather. Second grade has focused on holidays around the world, with songs of Spain, Mexico, England, Ireland, Africa and learning more about notes. The third graders are studying the Nutcracker Suite by Tchaikovsky to go along with their field trip to the "Z" to see it in Ballet. Fourth grade will be finishing up songs about planets and space by listening to The Planets by Holst. Grade 5 will be finishing up Native American Music and beginning a series on Why Toes Tap.

ball skills. They have practiced throwing, catching, carrying, rolling, dribbling, and striking. These skills will help them be more successful when playing various ball games. Our next unit will be on Cooperative Sports and Games. Students will learn that people who work together will be more successful than people who do not coorporate. Art News

Students will not be "involved" with a variety of Christmas projects, this term, as we are still working on "Thematic" units. First graders will design a "window"..."outside-looking-into-a-room." This correlates with a classroom weather unit. I am planning on doing "Tee-pees" with second grades, once I get all the sailcloth cut and branches collected. Two third grade classes are drawing fish and other marine creatures to supplement what they are learning about oceans and seas. Fourth grades are studying the Solar System. We will be drawing the planets, with colored pastels, on large black paper. Other groups will be making Indian War Shields, Colonial Quilts (with wallpaper) and Indian Symbol Mobiles. Fifth grades are still working on coloring State Birds. I am still in need of much help. Please send a note in with your child. A Merry Christmas to all!!!

Title I

A big Thank-You to all parents and students who participated in "Books For Bingo." An added thanks to those parents who donated goodies for all to enjoy. It was a great success and all enjoyed a wonderful fun-filled weekend. The Title I staff wish to extend greetings for a joyous holiday season!

The vessel was the victim of a several hour attack at the hands of the Israeli Navy and Air Force. Over 30 crewman were

Citizens Initiative Group

Increasingly aware of the challenges facing the town of Mattapoisett as it continues to grow, a number of residents have organized the Mattapoisett Citizens' Initiative with a primary focus on land use as related to Growth Management. The last indepth study of the possible growth paths for the town was completed in 1989. Events are moving so rapidly that it was thought a thorough review of present and future alternatives for land use in the town would be timely. The next meeting of the new organization is scheduled for 7:30 pm on Wednesday, January 10, 1996 at the Mattapoisett Quaker Meeting House on Route 6. All interested Mattapoisett residents are invited to attend. The agenda will include a review of the last Growth Management Report from 1989 and a preliminary assessment of the existing Zoning By-law. It is also expected that a report will be presented of the Planning Board hearing scheduled for January 2 on the proposed change of the Zoning By-law to allow public golf courses in the town.

United States Coast Guard

At a recent meeting of the U.S.C.G. Auxiliary Flotilla 1N-605, Mattapoisett resident Ronald Lima was awarded the National Commodore's Award to the newest Courtesy Marine Examiner who has done the most courtesy marine examinations. Certificates for recognition of 10 years of service were presented to P.J. and Audrey Beaudoin.

Children who are interested in singing with their friends in the choir, or who would like to share a favorite holiday poem or instrumental, should call Kate Webb at 758-2567. College of New Bedford cut commuting time and make a UMass degree more accessible than ever.

Students unable to participate in a typical 14-week Spring Semester can try one of the new intensive 7-week courses instead. Classes meet twice a week for the duration of the 7-week term.

DCE also is a pioneer in CyberEd, an innovative electronic classroom offered via the Internet. 13 courses are being offered entirely through the computer (no commuting necessary) and students from Italy, Canada and Korea, among others, have already registered for the "Classroom Without Walls."

"UMass is the only university south of Boston and the Division of Continuing Education is dedicated to bringing university education to the entire southeastern Massachusetts area," explained Robert Waxler, Dean of DCE. Registration continues until the first day of class, January 16. A monthly budget plan is available. To request a brochure, call the brochure request line at 999-9128.

Marion Open Space Planning Committee

The Marion Open Space Planning Committee has completed its most important task, the acquisition plan for open space. The final part of this plan, the identification of land that is currently available, is now going on. The goal set by the committee of having 24 percent of the town permanently protected as open space will take many years to achieve. Those who wish to discuss open space options for their property with the town or would like to suggest property for open space protection should call John Rockwell of the Buzzards Bay Project at 748-3600 for further information.

Mattapoisett Friends Meeting (Quaker)

In the Central American country of Belize, only half of all 12-year-old girls are chosen to continue on with their secondary education. The other half are left to their own devices. A Quaker woman in Belize city some years ago began a continuation school for girls aged 12 to 18. Today she needs financial help to keep the school, which has about 250 students, open and operating. The need is more pressing now because of Belizean government cut backs in funding. Sadie Vernon's venture is a story of love and devotion to girls of a variety of religious persuasions. The Mattapoisett Friends Meeting House (Quaker) is hoping to raise funds for that school by holding a consignment auction of small antiques (no heavy furniture) and collectibles in late January or early February. "If there is enough support within our community from people who will donate items either outright or on consignment, we'll be able to give a meaningful gift of money," said Brad Hathaway, who would head up the affair. Twice in the past, Sadie Vernon has visited with Mattapoisett Friends. Visits such as this have engendered support through gifts of money and or supplies for her work at the school and other humanitarian efforts from many Friends Meetings throughout the country. Anyone who thinks he or she might like to consign items for the sale are advised that 80 percent of the sale price will go to the consignor and 20 percent to the Friends Meeting. Outright gifts of money and sale items are also encouraged. For more information or to express intentions, call Brad Hathaway at 758-3579 or write

Dear Friends,

We are moving soon to our beautiful new building on Sconticut Neck Road in Fairhaven. Our hearts are filled with joy at the prospect; in fact, we're going to call our program "PROJECT JOY". While we wait for the construction to be finished, you'll still find us at the Knights of Columbus building in Mattapoisett, tending our indoor plants, painting, sculpting, doing strength training, (new term for weight lifting) and going on weekly field trips. All this despite the fact that some of us are in wheelchairs or walking with assistance.

Do you know someone who would benefit from the above activities...or who needs health care monitoring by our full-time Registered Nurse?

Call us at 758-6171 to arrange a visit for your loved one, or we will come to your home to meet him/her and explain our program further.

Happy Holidays!!!

News Submission Policy

The Wanderer gladly accepts any and all news and press release items from local non-profit organizations for publication on a weekly basis. The deadline for submission of said items is Monday at 12:00 noon for publication in that week's edition. Due to the increased number of submissions, however, publication of press material is never guaranteed. The Wanderer will make every effort to publish timely news items and announcements as the subject warrants and as often as spacing allows. All press material must be submitted in writing — we cannot accept news items via telephone.
